PALMETTO FORD DONATES
VAN TO CAMILLUS HOUSE

MIAMI, FL – February 5, 2008, 2008 Palmetto Ford Truck Sales, Inc., a family-owned and operated Ford/Sterling truck dealership, recently presented Camillus House with a 15 passenger E-350 van, valued at $30,000, announced Robert Yglesias, president of Palmetto Ford. The van will be used to transport clients of Camillus House.

“Palmetto Ford has worked with Camillus House for many years,” said Yglesias. “As an organization, we fully support Camillus House’s mission of assisting South Florida’s homeless community.

"We appreciate the generosity of Palmetto Ford Truck, and the entire Yglesias family. The van they donated will be invaluable to us, and make an enormous difference in our ability to transport persons who are poor and homeless among the many Camillus House locations in Miami-Dade County," said Dr. Paul R Ahr, President & CEO of Camillus House.

Serving the South Florida community since 1960, Camillus House is a non-profit organization that provides humanitarian services to poor and homeless men, women and children. Camillus offers a full continuum of services that includes food, shelter, housing, rehabilitative treatment, and health care.

Palmetto Ford Truck Sales, Inc. is a second generation family-owned and operated Ford/Sterling truck dealership. Serving the South Florida community since 1966, Palmetto Ford is the largest Ford wholesale parts distributor in Miami-Dade and Broward Counties servicing businesses throughout the area and exporting to countries around the world. While the dealership specializes in all size commercial truck sales, it has a sizeable retail business featuring sport utility vehicles, vans and light trucks.
